Title: Mr. Speaker made reference to the tragic incident in which a bus fell in Narmada Canal at Bodeli near Vadodara, Gujarat resulting in death of about 41 school children and injuries to several others.

MR. SPEAKER: Hon. Members, today morning about 41 children lost their lives and several others were injured in a most tragic incident when a bus carrying them fell in Narmada Canal at Bodeli near Vadodara, Gujarat.

I believe, the House joins me in expressing our profound grief over the tragic incident and mourns the loss of the precious lives.

We also convey our deepest sense of condolence, sympathies and sorrow to the members of the bereaved families.

MR. SPEAKER: We have started the House today badly but let us hope that the Parliament functions today with your kind cooperation. Thank you.
